

Program Transfer Policy

For Students Accepted to Go Abroad Summer 2020-Spring/Calendar Year 2022

Policy regarding program transfers:

The primary reason for allowing transfers is to protect a student financially. Due to the uncertainty caused by the COVID-19 situation, students accepted for terms in the above range can transfer up to one full academic year ahead, if students have paid at least the $30 application fee:

Financial policy regarding program transfers:

- $30 application fee: transferred to new term, non-refundable
- $150 deposit: transferred to new term, non-refundable

If a student has been accepted to any of the terms listed above, then transfers to a future term and fails to complete the application by the deadline, transferring again to a new program with an extended deadline, or reopening their existing application, is not allowed and the student forfeits the application fee and deposit.

The standard transfer policy will be in affect beginning Summer 2022. Students who transfer from terms covered by this policy to Summer 2022 or later will be under the standard transfer policy beginning Summer 2022.
