	Peru	NA: Peru does offer a 3 or 4- week summer session; however, courses change from year to year and are usually in English.

*Chile & Costa Rica: students can take a number of LAS classes, also. See CIE website for details.

**Valladolid Academic Year students in the spring semester, Mexico & Peru semester students can take a broad range of classes; some equivalencies have been established for Valladolid & Mexico, none for Peru.

***The Costa Rica programs have two sessions. Session 1 is five weeks long; session 2 is three weeks long. Students attending both sessions fulfill the immersion requirement. To use Session 1 as partial fulfillment of the immersion requirement, students must get approval from the Spanish section head or the LAS department chair BEFORE the beginning the program. Session 2 alone does not partially fulfill the requirement.
